

Adult Education: Speaker Series

Parents and Children: A Core Jewish Relationship

Presented by The Toronto Heschel School

Dr. Rachael Turkienicz

Jewish Parenting: Raising a Mensch

January 16, 2018 | 7:00 PM

Dr. Rachael Turkienicz earned her Ph.D. in Talmudic and Midrashic Studies from Brandeis University and is on the faculty of York University. She is the host and co-producer of a weekly television series called 'Uncommon Ground', writes a column for the Canadian Jewish News, and is a published author both in her field of academia as well as in children's literature.

Yacov Fruchter

Raising Resilient Purim Jews and Empathetic Pesach Jews

March 15, 2018 | 7:00 PM

Yacov will explore the work of Yossi Klein Halevi and provide ideas of how to raise resilient children that are committed to the values of Jewish community and social justice for all. Yacov believes in the transformative power of "real" conversations and is always excited to help individuals and families make meaningful Jewish decisions.

Torah Study

Adult Education: Torah Study

January 19, February 2, February 23,
March 9, March 23, April 20, May 4

We will study and discuss the weekly Parshah with sessions focussing on parent-child relationships in Jewish tradition.

RSVP to adulthoodeducation@torontoheschel.org

All members of the Heschel community are welcome.